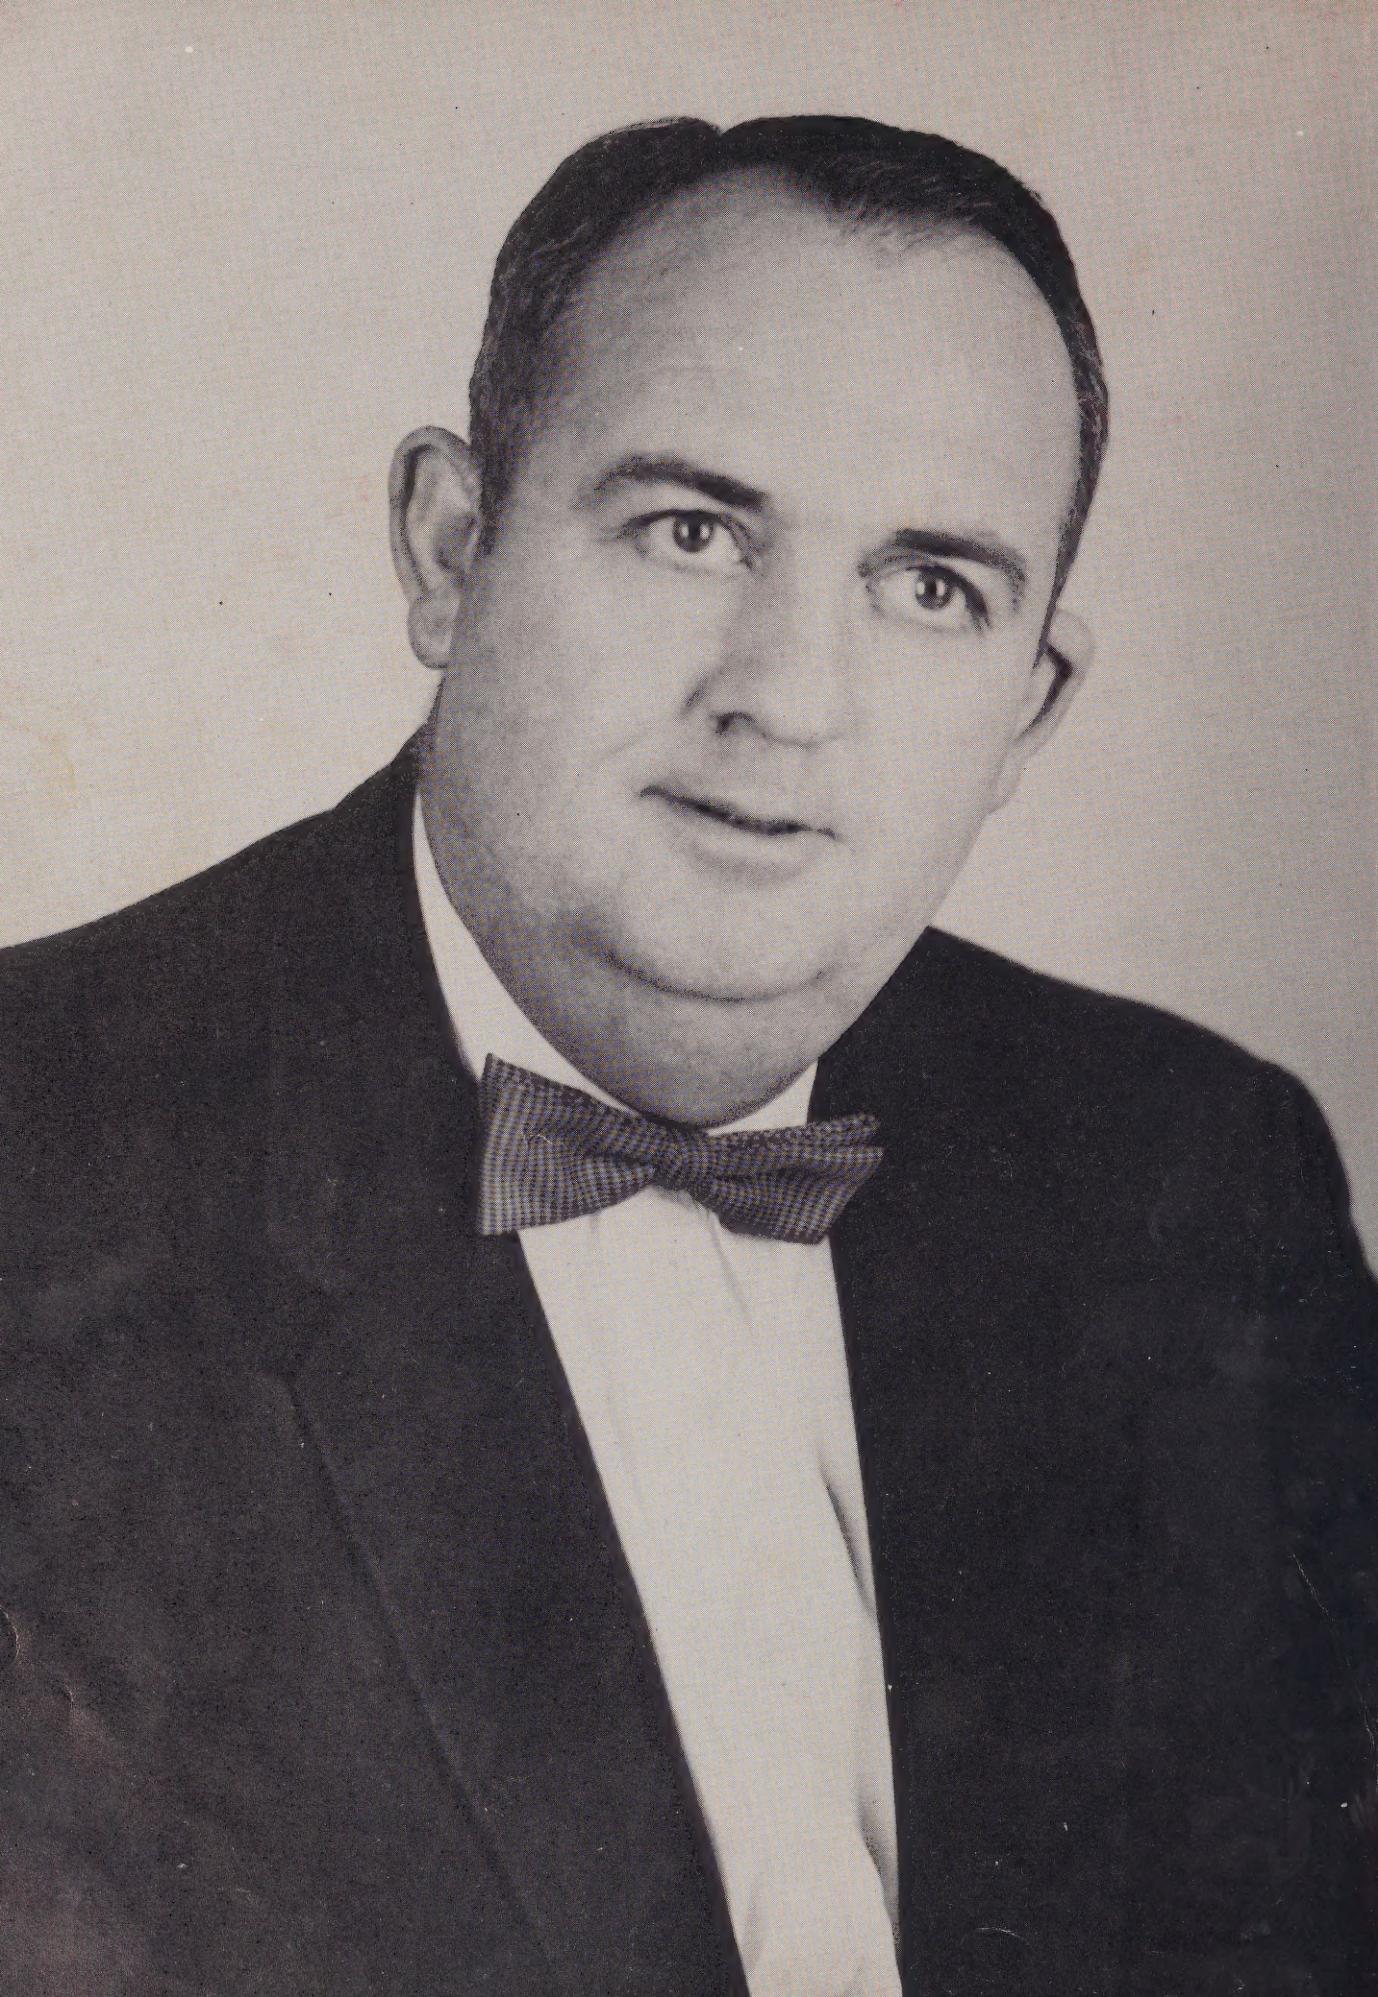
H. E. Simpson

Southwest High School

presents

The Iliad

1957



Dedication

To you, Mr. Simpson, the senior class of Southwest High School respectfully dedicates this first edition of The Iliad.

Your devotion to young people, both as a wise administrator and as an understanding and faithful friend, your lively sense of humor, and your untiring efforts in helping us to attain the best values in living have given us much for which we are sincerely grateful.

CLASS POEM

"FAREWELL TO SOUTHWEST"

Our departing time is almost here so we must say good-bye
Soon we'll be leaving dear ole Southwest High
Together we have gone with friends we loved so dear
And now too soon, our departing time is near.

Our joys we shared with friends so dear
We never will regret
Our school, our teachers, and our many friends
We never will forget.

All that we are we owe to you
Who have worked so hard to see us through
So before we depart please let us say
A sincere "THANK YOU" from our class today.

CLASS SONG

Now is the time when we must say good-bye
Soon we'll be leaving dear ole Southwest High
Friends we have made, good friends we will remain
Throughout our lives, whatever we attain.

Our days at school we never will regret
And things we did there we will ne're forget
Our days at school with teachers kind and true
And to them all we want to say THANK YOU.

Senior Class History

As our school days end, we the Seniors cherish deeply the memories of the days gone by. Taking a backward look to the fall of '56 as we began a strange and exciting life in our beautiful, new school, it was indeed with mixed emotions and feelings that we met people from three other sections.

To start the new year, the Senior Class was one hundred and twenty. We gailed a few; some left us; but still our class was a good working unit. With the aid of our faculty advisors: Miss Frances Cook, Mrs. Betty Zammit, Miss Daphne Campbell and Mr. Dixon Roberts, the Senior Class quickly acclimated itself and began tackling the many decisions which had to be made. Shortly afterwards, the election of class officers was held. With President, Mervin Garrison, Secretary, Jean Tise, Treasurer, Harold Sheets, and Vice-Presidents, Gene Hoots, Judy Ellingham, Charles Parker and Rex Luck, the Senior Class moved forward under their able leadership.

Our first new experience was the "posing" and "snapping" of our Senior pictures. Our memories take us back too, to College Day when we visited and talked about preparing for the future with different representatives from colleges, and caught a slight peep into a vast new world. The election of superlatives was interesting and exciting for each of us. Although only a very few had the honor of being voted a "super", we all felt on top of the world. Next came the selection of our mascots, the annual dedication, and the choice of class colors, truly highlights of our senior year.

We felt very satisfied when our annual went to press, and we waited impatiently for its return, bound, polished and filled with our work, honors and achievements.

Our attitudes and actions on "Kids Day" made us realize that though our school days were drawing to an end, we sometimes were still very young! Class Day exercises and the Baccalaureate Sermon will be cherished memories forever.

The night we received our diplomas, we felt exalted above others, lost in a world of our own. We no longer were students, no longer were school kids, nor were we adults in the business world. It was the beginning and yet the ending, for we faced the future with warm courage and high hopes. The past is always a memory; the future, a reality, not a dream.

Last Will and Testament

We, the 1957 Senior Class of Southwest High School, being of sound body and mind and realizing the approaching unavoidable death of our class, do hereby decree this document to be our Last Will and Testament. We wish to surrender the following worn, but cherished possessions:

ARTICLE I

SECTION I

To Mr. Simpson, upon whose shoulders has fallen the greatest load of our troubles and who has unselfishly conducted us through this first year at Southwest; we leave with all sincerity our appreciation and humble thanks for his untiring work with us. Without his aid and companionship we couldn't have made it.

SECTION II

For their neverending patience and helpfulness, we bequeath the teachers our intelligence which we were supposed to have received, but which nevertheless remained in the books, from us to more mature delinquents.

SECTION III

To the rising senior class, we place in your hands all the honors and hardships of being called seniors and are sure you will use them in a way best befitting you.

SECTION IV

To the sophomores we leave "The Little Red School House," all the old worn books, the exhausted teachers, and hope your three years of high school will be as enjoyable as ours. By the way, try to squeeze in a little 'larning if you find the time.

SECTION V

To the unexperienced freshmen who have just gotten their big toe in this enormous thing called high school, we say, "Come on in, the water's fine." To you, we leave three years of high school in which to cram your heads full of knowledge and experience on how to handle teachers.

ARTICLE II

SECTION I

Jack Bryant, who always had a knack for getting out of class, wills this ability to Mike Van Doeren and Dick Cooksey. Teachers, beware of boys.

Linda McLain, wishes to will her ability to drive on the right side of the road to Butch Ebert. Let's watch that center line Butch!

Bobby Kiger, that guy who loves the p-i-a-n-o-o-o, wills his talent for playing it to Sue Brewer. Sweet music!

Zoom! And there goes Lynda Ketner who wills to Patsy Bingham her ability to go 85 m.p.h. and not get caught. I say, is that a siren I hear?

That fellow Ray Atkins, who kept everyone entertained with his imitations and ability to M. C. wills this talent to Bill Brewer and James Sapp.

Jack Barney with regrets, leaves his job at McMillan Furniture Store to Junior Stewart. Don't work too hard Junior.

Who are those two who catch admiring glances as they pass by? Who else but Ruby Hogue and Thurman Tate. They wish to will their good looks to Barbara Stewart and Freddie Ziglar.

Hey Ray! Nancy Vaught, the young lady who kept the crowds roaring all year, wishes to will her chief cheerleader outfit to Pat Sink. Keep everyone yelling for us Pat.

George "Tex" Jones, often seen in the wrestling arena, wills his love of horses and rodeos to Johnny Boyer and Ray Spainhour. Ride 'em cowboys!

Judy Ellingham and Gene Hoots, who always seem to have the right answers at the right time, will their intelligence to Phyllis Hauser and Reid Craft.

Norma Jean Harbin, that girl seen moving swiftly over the basketball court, wills her ability to play ball to Gail Chadwick. Keep racking up the points, Gail.

And Casey's up to bat! Rex Luck wills his baseball glove to Wayne Tuttle. S-t-r-i-k-e one!

Pat Woosley and Mack Henson wish to will all their witty sayings to Gary Harper and Ann Ketner.

That sunny smile you see belongs to Phyllis Burton and she wishes to will it to Janice Bodsford.

Audrey Voss and Edwin Vitek will their terrific personalities to Dorothy Jones and Walter Taylor.

Suzanne Taylor, who led the high steppers this year, wills her position as chief majorette to Barbara Sprinkle. We'll be watching from the sidelines, Barbara.

Linda Doub, who acquired quite a few nicknames thinks she ought to will them all to Jane Strupe. Think you can handle them all Jane?

Howard and Harold Sheets, the two boys who co-ordinated so well on the basketball court will their ability to play to David Caudle and James Buie.

Ann Spainhour and Danny Jennings, who always had a friendly smile and "hello" for everyone, will their ability to get along with everyone to Gail Young and Larry Warner.

Peggy Patterson and Krider Barber will their wise cracks and ability to get their two cents worth in, to Nancy Hutchins and Steve Moser.

Elaine Wood and Judy Bryant, quiet souls who never had much to say, leave their quiet and demure ways to Peggy Yow, Carolyn Johnson, and Evelyn Cox.

A girl who can solve tricky math problems and create beautiful poetry? Could be. Nancy Smith wills this, her ability, to Eddy Green and Suzanne Davis.

Freddie Masencup and Arnold Fulp will their Friendliness to Clinton Cline and Ruby Slater.

Silence! Genius at work! Donna Lou Jones and Mervin Garrison will their studious nature to R. M. Hicks and Jeanne Myers.

Who is that young lady who is always surrounded by boys? Gail McInnis of course. She wishes to will her clan of boyfriends to Doris Ann Needham.

It's a bird! It's a plane! It's superman! Nope! It's only Leroy Jones flying by on his motorcycle which he wishes to will to Kenneth Easter along with his nickname "Bum."

Bzzz! Bzzz! Who's the two whispering in the corner? Pauline Greene and Marlene Henning of course, who wish to will all their little secrets and good times to Ann Lewis and Glynda Will.

Glynda Lineback wishes to will Mrs. Butner to Alton Jones. H-m-m-m-m; I see who the teacher's pet is now.

Frank Dalton wills his talent for making furniture in F.F.A. to Paul Hill.

Joyce and Lois Craver will all the fun they had in confusing everyone to Mona Davis and Reva Cook.

Ralph Bolt and P. R. Swaim will their special places in the teachers' hearts to Billy Beshears.

Chester Robertson wills his interest in psychology to David Smith and Gaye Wall.

Evelyn Smothers and Doris Dentiste, the two chatterboxes, will their never-ending conversations to Linda and Diane Beauchamp. Remember girls: Speech is silver but silence is golden.

Grady Brewer, up to his neck in dough and powder, wills his job at the bakery to Tommy Jones.

Flying saucers? Charles Binkley knows all about them. He wishes to will his love of science and flying saucers to James Hutchby and Melba Ledford.

Ruby Moody wills her position on the Bible Team to Ann Huffman.

T. L. Griffith leaves his desire to carry the same young lady's books to "Dumpy" Hill.

Tom Shutt leaves his ability to keep his little Chevy out in front to Martin Binkley.

Bill Smith wills his ability to play football to Larry Jones.

Stephanie Coppenbarger and Henry Miller will their job as testator to Theodora Alexander and Wayne Ketner, in hopes you will use lots more imagination than they did.

About face! Allen Wrights and Sam Ellis leave their positions in the Army Reserves to Edwin Newsome and Eddie Meadows.

Do, Ra, Me! Angela Beshears and Lynne Reynolds will their song bird voices To Etta Dunn, Fay Harris, and Kay Pfaff.

Gail Conrad, who took to Chemistry like a duck to water, wills her good grades in it to Larry Brandon, you should have no trouble now Larry.

The old Married folks, Dot and David Jones, Darlene Tood, Arlen and Betty Lewis, and Carolyn Nelson, wish to leave their old shoes and tin cans from their bumpers to Janet Dull and Dare Holder.

Zerelda Hancock, Jo Ann Smith, and Betty Hull, will their ability to get a "rock" to Barbara Jones, Hilda Hancock, and Bonnie Dalton.

Charles Parker wills the unexplained dents in the top of his bus to Roy Jones.

Kenneth Ferrington, Eugene Fry and Linville Tood will their threeway friendship to Robert Blackburn, Alan Mock and Harold Conrad.

Charlie Norman, Ray Patton, Jerry Cox, and Wayne Fuqua will their buses to James Britt, Wilson Sparks, and Hubert Barney and James Berrier, on the condition that you keep them between the banks.

Patty Hooker and Sarah Sloan will their sense of humor to Dot Whitman.

James Craft wills his little jeep to Miller Harper.

Peggy Horne, Carolyn McBride, and Shirley Hutchins will that special corner in french to Carolyn Lowder, Shirley Edwards, and Paula Drane.

Only one in a million! Harold Langley wills his quiet manner in class to Linde Chapman.

Gale Moser and Don Stone will their ability to stay neat as a pin to Dick Reynolds and Lorene Spainhour.

Ida Mae McBride and Carrie Sue Taylor will all the good eating they had in bookkeeping to Phyllis Pinnix and Barbara Goad.

Sue Lowe wills all her speed in shorthand to Mary Jones.

Lillie Belle Keaton wills her sweet nature to Edith Shore.

Tee hee! Eleanor Fulp leaves her giggles in Mr. Robert's class to Sarah Reece and Patsy Meadows.

Allen Beauchamp wills his trademark XYZ to Sam Wright and Kent Davis.

Dallas Patterson wills his ability to hold down his corner at Lewisville to Richard Henning and D. C. Mock.

Yakety yack! Tom Phelps wills his neverending talk to Bill Vogler, James Clompton and Archie Slater.

J. C. Shelton leaves his ability to imitate bird calls to David Church and Robert Lanbeth.

Josephine Hutchins and Peggy Hester will all those days they wished they were out of school to Joe Brewer and Kenneth Pegram.

Linda Howard wills her long vacation in the hospital to Glenn Pitcher and Robert Smith.

Frances Holcomb wills her interest in nursing to Phyllis Maines.

Margaret Collins wills her ability to write letters (to a certain somebody) in English to Carolyn Picket.

Carolyn Johnson leaves her ability to get things done in a hurry to Don Minor and William Shelton.

Betty Hamilton and Sybil Young leave their love of Home Economics to Gaye Wall.

Peggy Craver leaves her attraction to red heads to Billy Cline and Bobby Hester.

Patricia and Dorothy Worrell leave their happy-go-lucky days to Billy Williams and Douglas Cobble.

Brenda Cook leaves her ability to do good work in office practice to Melba Ledford and Evelyn Cox.

Jean Tise and Nancy Setliff leave their basketball suits to Donna Bodenhamer and Rosa Case.

Amo Lee Leftwich leaves her ability to have a humorous wreck to Roland Bryant and Ralph Huff.

Peggy Davis leaves her ability to have an argument and make up just as easily with her boyfriend to Joan McClamrock and Becky Hauser.

Janet Lowder leaves all her happy weekends to James Canter and Billy Williams.

Merita Bracken leaves her polite and kind ways to Allen Black and Bobby Hester.

Virginia Porter and Sue Jones leave their poise to Judy Campbell, Juanita Byers, and Jeanette Kirby.

As a curtain of darkness draws over the end of our class days many wonderful memories pass before our eyes. However, the spirit of our class shall haunt those who dare to tread upon our grave.

Requested by the 1957 Senior Class, this will was signed, sealed, and published on the twenty-eighth day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL COACH-OF-YEAR

Miss Frances Cook, girls' basketball coach, was named county coach of the year by the county coaches.

Miss Cook, whose hobby is sports, did an outstanding job combining the three schools, South Fork, Clemmons, and Lewisville, into Southwest's first team. Since the gym was not finished at the beginning of the year, the Trojans practiced at Clemmons.

A native of Mebane, Miss Cook played high school basketball four years. She worked in the hosiery mill for a year before going to Appalachian State Teachers College. However, she was not certain as to what she wanted to major in at that time.

After her graduation from college, she coached basketball at Clemmons and remained there until coming to Southwest this year.

CONGRATULATIONS MISS COOK!

JOE POPP
SELECTED COUNTY'S TOP COACH

Joe Popp, Coach of the Southwest High Trojans, was selected Forsyth County Coach of the year by vote of his football coaching colleagues.

Popp came to Southwest from Jonesville High this fall. He took six-man football players from Clemmons, South Fork and Lewisville, and his team won the Class AA-C county title by tying Walkertown and beating Glenn. On a won-lost basis the team record wasn't too impressive but as one of the coaches who voted for Popp put it, "Joe did an outstanding job to take boys who had never played 11-man football, who had never worked together and teach them that complicated multiple offense. They ran it very well considering."

Popp gives all the credit to the boys. "They came along much faster than I ever thought they would," he said. He pointed out that learning 11-man football was almost like learning a brand new game to these six-man players. "For instance," said Popp, "we had to train guards and tackles. None of the boys had ever played these positions for there's no such thing in six-man ball."

Popp is looking forward to even brighter things next year. "We'll have a good nucleus returning and we won't have to begin as far back as we did this year. The boys will at least know what I'm talking about next fall."

Popp's a hard worker, a solid enthusiast for football. He drives his players hard but he drives himself as hard. He is so intense that he's likely to blow his top one minute and then pat the same player on the back the next minute. But, as Joe reasons, if the boy messes it up one play and does it right the next, why not?

"I think one of the greatest things he did," said Walkertown's Coach Joe Floyd, "was to instill that desire to play football in the Southwest boys."

Wrestling 1957 Tournament Standings

Henry Miller defeated four opponents and lost only once in the tourament to take third place in the Wrestling Tournament held at Burlington on February 23 and 22.

Danny Hauser wrestled one of the best matches in the tournament when he defeated his first opponent 11-10. Hauser placed Third in the 95 pound bracket.

The fastest fall in the tournament came when Junior Stewart pinned H. Hawkins of Myers Park in fifteen seconds of the first period.

Since this was our first year for wrestling we consider this a good record.
